ORDER:

In the G.O. fourth read above, the Government directed that in cases of dependents of the deceased Government employees, who do not possess the minimum educational qualification or typewriting qualification prescribed for the post to which they are appointed with a condition to acquire such requisite qualification within the stipulated period prescribed in the G.Os. first to third read above, fail to acquire such requisite qualification within that stipulated time, such candidates may be allowed/given a further period of 2 (two) more years over and above the period prescribed in the G.Os. first to third read above as a grace period to acquire such requisite educational or typewriting qualification prescribed for the post to which they were appointed. If the candidate concerned fails to acquire the requisite educational or typewriting qualification even within the above extended grace period then he/she may be considered for appointment for a lower post such as an attender where such educational/typewriting qualification is not prescribed and accordingly he/she may be appointed in a lower post such as an attender as if he/she is a fresh candidate, after obtaining the willingness of the candidate. If he/she is not willing to take the lower post it shall be treated that there are no compelling reasons of poverty and such candidate be discharged from service.

2. The Telangana Non-Gazetted Officer's Central Union in their representation fifth and sixth read above have represented that several Government employees who were appointed without possessing the minimum educational or typewriting qualifications with a condition to acquire such requisite qualifications prescribed for the post to which they were appointed, under the scheme of compassionate appointment to the dependents of deceased Government employees, have failed to acquire the requisite qualification within the stipulated period including grace period prescribed in the aforesaid G.Os for various reasons such as domestic and health problems etc. The Telangana Non-Gazetted Officer's Central Union have therefore requested for extending time limit for one more year for acquiring requisite academic qualification or typewriting qualification to those Government employees who were appointed conditionally under the scheme of compassionate appointments to the dependents of deceased Government employees and failed to acquire such requisite minimum educational or typewriting qualification within the prescribed period including the grace period of two (2) years.

3. The Government, after careful examination of the matter hereby extend the time limit by one more year from the date of issue of these orders for acquiring the requisite educational or typewriting qualifications to those Government employees who were appointed conditionally under the scheme of compassionate appointments to the dependents of the deceased Government employees and failed to acquire such requisite qualifications within the stipulated period including the grace period prescribed in the G.Os first to fourth read above, as one time measure only.

4. The Government also direct that if such Government employees fail to acquire the requisite educational or typewriting qualifications even within the above extended time limit, action may be taken against such Government employee as ordered at para (6) in G.O. fourth read above.
